1. Scope of tariff

This tariff applies to performances of copyright music within PRS for Music's* repertoire* in theatrical presentations.

2. Conditions

This tariff is subject to PRS for Music's General Conditions Applicable to Tariffs and Licences, available on request from PRS for Music.

Unless PRS for Music agrees otherwise, no annual licence under this tariff will be deemed to cover, and no permit will be issued in respect of, the performance of interpolated music* unless the licensee or applicant has, at least 30 days before the date of the proposed first performance thereof, given notice to PRS for Music of the full details of:

- the work or works to be performed,
- the manner and duration of performance,
- the name of the production in which they are to be performed, and
- the dates and venue of the proposed performances, and PRS for Music has thereafter notified the licensee or applicant that it is empowered to license the performance of those works in the manner proposed.

If PRS for Music terminates this tariff it will give at least 6 months' notice in writing of its intention to The Society of London Theatre (SOLT) and the Theatrical Management Association (TMA).

* See Definitions, section 6

3. Royalty rates

Where the music user has applied for and obtained PRS for Music's licence before musical performances commence, the standard royalty rate will be charged and payable for the first year of the licence.

Where the music user has not applied for and obtained PRS for Music's licence before musical performances commence, the higher (standard plus 50%) royalty rate will be charged and payable for the first year of the licence.

After the first year of the licence, in either case, the standard royalty rate will be charged and payable.

The basic royalty set out in 3.3.2 above will be applied as follows:

For London West End theatres

- having 1,000 seats or less the basic royalty will apply.
- having more than 1,000 seats but not more than 1,500, the basic royalty will be increased by  $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ .
- having more than 1,500 seats, the basic royalty will be increased by 100%.

For theatres (other than London West End theatres)

- having 1,000 seats or less, the basic royalty will be decreased by 12%.
- having more than 1,000 seats, the basic royalty will be increased by 25%.

4. Value Added Tax

Every licensee under PRS for Music's tariffs will pay to PRS for Music in addition to the royalty due, a sum in respect of Value Added Tax calculated at the relevant rate on the royalty payable.

5. Inflation adjustment

Every year on 1st January, the monetary sums in this tariff will be adjusted for inflation. The adjustment formula will apply to the standard rates the percentages (to the nearest whole percentage point) by which the Retail Prices Index changed in the year to the previous September.

September is the latest month prior to the anniversary date for which figures are likely to be published for this index.

After application of the percentage adjustment the standard royalty rates will be rounded to the nearest half-penny except in the case of a weekly or annual rate when they will be rounded to the nearest penny.

All royalties will be charged at the royalty rate in force at the beginning of the licence-year.

6. Definitions

- net box office receipts means all monies paid or due in respect of admission charges in connection with any entertainment to which Tariff 'T' applies, less: refunds; ticket agency, party booking, Theatre Token, credit card, and other similar discounts; ticket booking fees; Value Added Tax or similar government imposed tax, if any.
- incidental or curtain music to stage plays means music heard by the theatre audience as an accompaniment to the play but which is not performed by or intended to be audible to any of the characters in the play.
- interpolated music means music not specially written for a theatrical production (and excluding overture, entr'acte, exit, "incidental" and "curtain" music) and which is performed by or intended to be audible to a character or characters in that theatrical production.
- music controlled by PRS for Music means, in relation to a theatrical production, any interpolated music the right of public performance in which is in PRS for Music's repertoire and, except as provided for in section 3.3.1, includes any work the performing right in which PRS for Music has declined to license in favour of the writer or publisher of the work for the purposes of that production.
- permanent repertory theatre means a theatre having a permanent company and having a change of programme at least once a month, with the exception of the customary weeks for Christmas pantomime and includes small club theatres operating as permanent repertory theatres.
- PRS for Music is the trading name of the Performing Right Society Limited.
- PRS for Music's repertoire means all and any musical works (including any words associated therewith), the right of public performance in which is controlled by PRS for Music or by any of the societies in other countries with which PRS for Music is affiliated.
